

The Cakesake Factory[®]

THE CHEESECAKE FACTORY® STORY

The Cheesecake Factory began with Oscar and Evelyn Overton's dream of having a successful family business. Always known as an excellent cook, Evelyn created her Original Cheesecake recipe and everyone loved it. By the late 1940's, she opened a small cheesecake shop in Detroit. In order to raise her two children, David and Renee, Evelyn chose to move her baking back to a kitchen in her basement where she continued to supply cakes to the best local restaurants.

In 1971, with their children grown, Evelyn and Oscar, now in their early 50's, decided to move their cheesecake business to Los Angeles. With the last of their savings, they opened a small bakery selling only the Original Cheesecake and called it "The Cheesecake Factory". In 1978, the Overton family founded The Cheesecake Factory restaurant in Beverly Hills to showcase their delicious baked goods. The restaurant was an immediate success, striking a chord with guests seeking freshness, quality and comfort in their dining experience.

The Cheesecake Factory restaurants celebrated their 25th Anniversary in February 2003. Through their many years of hard work, Oscar and Evelyn have inspired us to build upon their vision and commitment to excellence. Their entrepreneurial drive, innovation and passion for quality laid the foundation for The Cheesecake Factory's future success and allowed the Overtons to truly achieve their "American Dream".
